Color Temperature Specification

At present, Southern California Edison is using current generation General Electric (GE) Evolve LED street light fixtures for LED replacements under the LS-1 Option E program. GE LED fixtures allow for a choice between color temperatures of either 4000 Kelvin degrees (4000k) or 3000 Kelvin degrees (3000k) at the customer's discretion. Please check the box below and sign to signify your preference for either 3000k or 4000k color temperature lights. Thank you.

3000k color temperature lights are considered "warm white" and will have more yellow and amber tones that are consistent with today's existing High Pressure Sodium street lights.

4000k color temperature lights are between warm and cool on the spectrum and will provide a "whiter" appearing light without crossing into the bluer spectrum.

Please check your choice of 3000k or 4000k

* The Mid-Point Range of the Lamp Watts including driver, is established by deducting 2.5 Watts from the highest wattage of the corresponding range in the "Lamp Watts Including Driver" column.

 The energy use calculation for All Night Service is (Mid-Point Range watts) x (4,140 hours/12 months/1000). The same calculation is used for Midnight service except that the hours of service is replaced with 2,170 hours.

13. Billing Calculation: A customer's bill is calculated according to the rates and conditions above.

The charges listed in the RATES section are calculated by multiplying the Total Delivery Service rates and the Generation rates, when applicable, by the billing determinants (e.g., per kilowatt [kW], kilowatthour [kWh], etc.).

As of January 1, 2012, all generation supplied to Bundled Service Customers is provided by SCE. The DWR Energy Credit provided to Bundled Service Customers is determined by multiplying the DWR Energy Credit rate component by the customer's total kWhs.

- a. Bundled Service Customers receive Delivery Service and Generation service from SCE. The customer's bill is the sum of the charges for Delivery Service and Generation service determined, as described in this Special Condition, and subject to applicable discounts or adjustments provided under SCE's tariff schedules.
- b. Direct Access Customers receive Delivery Service from SCE and purchase energy from an Energy Service Provider. The customer's bill is the sum of the charges for Delivery Service determined as described in this Special Condition except that the DWRBC rate component is subtracted from the Total Delivery Service rates before the billing determinants are multiplied by such resulting Total rates; plus the applicable charges as shown in Schedule DA-CRS and subject to applicable discounts or adjustments provided under SCE's tariff schedules.
- c. CCA Service Customers receive Delivery Service from SCE and purchase energy from their Community Choice Aggregator (CCA). SCE will read the meters and present the bill for both Delivery and Generation Services to the CCA Service Customer. The customer's bill is the sum of the charges for Delivery Service as displayed in this Rate Schedule and Generation charges determined by the CCA plus the applicable charges as shown in Schedule CCA-CRS, and subject to applicable discounts or adjustments provided under SCE's tariff schedules.
