

Board of Supervisors and County Administrative Office Art Projects

November 19, 2019

OVERVIEW

Presentation Outline

1. Public Art Policy
2. Art Selection Committee
3. Government Plaza Collection
4. Proposed Displays for Board of Supervisors and County Administrative Office
 - Temporary Displays
 - Mural
 - County Seal
5. Conclusion & Requested Action

Ann Vreeland, Sunshine, Oil on canvas, 24 x 30 in. 2019

PUBLIC ART POLICY

- ▶ Provides formal guidance on the County's public art initiative including:
 - Identification of locations to display the artwork
 - Parameters for solicitation of temporary and permanent installations
 - Establishment of criteria for artwork selection

Jana Botkin, Little Cabin, Big Trees.
Pencil 25 x 30 in. 2019

SELECTION COMMITTEE

- ▶ Review art pieces in accordance with the Art Policy's Selection Criteria
- ▶ Decide which pieces to display
- ▶ Members include:
 - Two members of the Board of Supervisors
 - GSA Assistant Director
 - Interested department heads or their designee on a project by project basis

Mary Jayne Yada, American Flag.
Mixed media 29 x 46 in. 2019

GOVERNMENT PLAZA COLLECTION

- ▶ Collection opened September 2019
- ▶ 16 pieces from 11 local artists
- ▶ Two Tulare County employees among the artists
- ▶ People's Choice winner Gary Greeni for Mooney Grove Boat House, pictured here

Gary Greeni, Mooney Grove Boat House.
Color print, 2019

PROPOSED DISPLAYS FOR BOARD OF SUPERVISORS AND COUNTY ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

- ▶ Temporary Displays
 - ▶ Various mediums in the lobby and hallway (e.g. sculptures, paintings, textiles, collages, etc.)
 - ▶ Preference to local youth
 - ▶ Selection by each Supervisor of pieces representing his/her district
- ▶ Mural on north wall of conference room A/B
- ▶ County Seal at entrance of main lobby

Elaine Anderson, Ladybug Trail. Color print, 2019

CONCLUSION & REQUESTED ACTION

Request:

1. Provide direction to staff regarding the temporary and permanent art displays at the Board of Supervisors and County Administration Office proposed by the Art Selection Committee.

Gary Greeni, Golden Tree. Color print, 2019

