SUMMARY:

This is a five-year cooperative law enforcement agreement that includes an Annual Operating Plan (Exhibit A), which allocates $50,000 for reimbursement of salaries and benefits for Sheriff's deputies. The Annual Operating Plan will be renewed each year pending funding availability. The Forest Service determines the reimbursement amount each year.

The scope of work includes basic law enforcement services provided by two Sheriff's deputies in remote mountainous areas of eastern Tulare County. In addition, there is a provision to reimburse the County for deputy services during extraordinary situations, such as fire emergencies and drug enforcement activities.
