SUBJECT: University of California Cooperative Extension Department Report and Presentation of Proclamation for Centennial Celebration.

REQUEST(S):
 That the Board of Supervisors:

1. Receive a presentation regarding the University of California Cooperative Extension in Tulare County.
2. Present a proclamation in recognition of the Centennial Celebration of the University of California Cooperative Extension.

SUMMARY:
 The year of 2014 is the 100th anniversary of the Smith-Lever Act establishing Cooperative Extension and the centennial year for University of California Cooperative Extension marking 100 years of science and service in our state. In partnership with the County of Tulare since 1917, University of California Cooperative Extension stimulated economic and community progress over the years, developing and delivering critical economic, agricultural, environmental and community development programs; lead youth development through 4-H and improved family health in the communities of the county.

The University of California Cooperative Extension offers vital services to Tulare County's farms, youth, and communities, providing connections to science and research, empowering volunteers, developing new leaders, and preparing tomorrow's workforce; supporting producers, managers, and agencies by providing solutions for critical agricultural and natural resource issues and supporting economic, youth, and community development throughout the county.
